

Core API

Extensions

The components in this section are used to extend several types to enhance the usability of them in different scenarios. This section becomes enhanced on-demand depending on known user stories to simplify repeating tasks as good as possible. Take a look into the different components listed here to reduce the amount of code and improve the readability of it as well.

- OpcStatusCodeExtensions

Table of Contents

Extensions 1